

SOCIAL VIDEO

Contestants create a video program that uses images and sounds to portray any social problem and the way of its decision. The video must include a narration, but it may also include music, sound effects, and additional dialog or narration. A title screen may be included, but all photography, whether still or moving, must be shot by the contestants (no stock footage).

No more than five contestants may be involved. The contestants may have an equipment operator in the editing suite, but the contestants must make the editing decisions. Adults may give technical guidance and advice, but the preparation and production must be done by the contestants.

Entries may be recorded in any format. All entries are to be uploaded to the RSC program and/or to internet resources.

Contestants must prepare "mock" letters requesting permission from the publishers of any music used. Include a title screen in the video giving credit to the publisher.

Video length should be four (4) minutes minimum to six (6) minutes maximum. If competition piece does not meet the four (4) minute minimum or exceeds the six (6) minute maximum time limit, the entry will receive a .5-pointdeduction for any portion of thirty (30) second increments outside the allotted time. (For example, a piece timed at 3:42 would receive a half-point deduction from the total score. A piece of 6:42 would receive a deduction of a full point from the total score.)
